

Our institution is committed to provide exponentially rewarding education, laced further with spiritual nuances, cultural niches and national zeal making the learning holistic and benefiting the nation and society as much as the individual woman student who chose to pursue her studies here. Our Motto, Vision, Mission, Objectives and Quality Policy of our Institution are intertwined and energized to fulfill the great purpose of empowerment of women in the society through women's education.